RE: Dean v. St. Martin's Press

Dear Len,

Your recollection about the resolution of John Dean's libel case against you because of your book, Silent Coup, is correct. The case was dismissed with prejudice (see attached) and you received $410,000 from your insurance company State Farm. It was a total victory.

Best wishes,

Martin Lobel

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Maurice K. Dean and John W. Dean,
Plaintiffs,

v.

St. Martin's Press, Inc.,
et al.,
Defendants.

Civ. No. 92-1807(EGS)

FILED
SEP 27 1999

EMMET G. SULLIVAN, CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER

Plaintiffs, Maurice K. Dean and John W. Dean, have moved to dismiss this action with prejudice. Defendant Leonard Colodny initially objected to plaintiff's motion, but has now withdrawn his opposition in view of plaintiff's statement that they have foreclosed themselves from reasserting against defendant Colodny any of the causes of action in their Second Amended Complaint.

Plaintiff's motion is hereby GRANTED and this action shall be dismissed with prejudice as to Defendant Colodny. Accordingly, the Motions Hearing scheduled for October 5, 1999, is canceled.

EMMET G. SULLIVAN
United States District Judge
